

Documentary voice over

Introduction:

Birmingham: an advanced multicultural city. Where people from every background, culture, ethnicity, and religion are present.

But have you ever thought:

how do these people define “Religion” and why do they follow it?

There are as many different answers to this question as the numerous religions and beliefs in the world.

In this documentary, we will be looking at 3 religions, that are knowingly present in Birmingham: Sikhism, Christianity, and Islam.

we will present their answers to the following question:

Main body:

What is religion?

According to Islam religion means “submission to the will of Allah (God)” and it is, also, a divine law that enables the believers with intelligence to attain goodness, happiness, and success, not only in this world but in the next one too.

As it is said in the Muslim prayer call: Hayya”alas-Salah,” which means come to pray and Hayya”alal-Falah, which means come to success.

According to Christianity religion it is the study of experience and text from the past based on the life and traditions of Jesus Christ. Being religious leads to success, especially in the non-materialistic world, which means inner peace and paradise in the hereafter.

According to Sikhism religion is a way to connect yourself with your creator, therefore God called Vae Guru. So, religion allows the human being to achieve union with God and according to Sikh traditions God says: “If you become mine, I’ll give you the entire world.”

Despite having different theories and extremely diverse from each other, all these religions agree to one fact that their younger generations are stepping away from religious matters. religions representatives believe the reasons behind this are: the contemporary education system which focuses more on science and technology, parents are not fulfilling their duties to make their children aware of the non-materialistic and spiritual aspect of life but they priorities the needs of the materialistic world and also because being religious is not easy but it requires sacrifices.

Conclusion:

In conclusion:

how you would define religion?

What effect does religion have on your life?

Do you agree with any of the opinions mentioned above?